

Research Data Australia Collection Policies

Contributors to Research Data Australia should also refer to the guidance within the Content Providers Guide for practical assistance with implementing the requirements of these policies.

Collection Development Policy

This policy defines the intent, coverage and curation of Research Data Australia content as well as the preferred model for access and licensing.

Collection Description Quality Policy

This policy covers issues of metadata completeness, rich contextual connections, and fitness for purpose of collection descriptions in Research Data Australia.

Collection Description Integrity Policy

This policy addresses issues of currency, accuracy and appropriateness of collection descriptions in Research Data Australia.